ESKIMO MANAGEMENT

HUGH CAMPBELL

• President
& C.E.O.

Hugh Campbell has enjoyed success at every level of professional football: as a player, coach, general manager and in his current role as president and CEO of the Edmonton Eskimos. In recognition of his achievements, Hugh was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame (builders category) in September 2000. Strongly committed to the Canadian Football League, Hugh has taken an active role in improving areas such as player pensions, safety, health and per diems.

Perhaps best known as head coach of the Eskimos "Five in a Row" dynasty teams, Campbell was at the centre of the Eskimos greatest era. He was named head coach in 1977 and went on to lead the team to the still unbroken CFL record of six straight first place finishes and six consecutive Grey Cup appearances. His regular season coaching record of 70 wins, 21 losses and 5 ties remains the best percentage in CFL history. In 14 trips to the Grey Cup as a player, coach and general manager, Hugh has been on the winning side 8 times.

In 1982 Hugh left Edmonton for the fledgling United States Football League. After one season as coach of the Los Angeles Express, he was named head coach of the NFL's Houston Oilers where he was reunited with former Eskimo quarterback Warren Moon. Hugh spent the 1984 & '85 seasons with Houston. He returned to Edmonton in 1986 as the teams' General Manager, a post he held until 1997. Campbell was named President and CEO in 1997.

A native of San Jose, California, Hugh was a star wide receiver at Washington State University from 1959 to 1962. Hugh was named MVP in the East - West Shrine Game and Coaches All-American game and he also played in the College All-Star game and the Hula Bowl. He graduated from Washington State with a Bachelor of Science in Education and Physical Education degrees and a Masters degree.

Hugh was drafted in 1963 by the San Francisco 49'ers and the Oakland Raiders of the old AFL. Hugh ended up playing for Saskatchewan. As a surehanded receiver for six seasons (1963 - '67 and 1969), "Gluey Hughie" put up some outstanding numbers including 60 career touchdown receptions; 17 of those in one season and 5,245 career receiving yards. He appeared in the Grey Cup in each of his last three seasons as a player.

In addition to his duties with the Eskimos, Hugh is the CEO of the Edmonton Trapper Baseball Club - Triple A affiliate of the Minnesota Twins. The Edmonton Eskimo Football Club purchased the Trappers in 1999. Hugh was also on the Board of Directors and served as chair of the Tickets and Merchandise division of Edmonton 2001 World Championship in Athletics.

HEAD COACH

• Head Coach

Tom Higgins is in his second season as head coach of the Edmonton Eskimos. Named to the post June 18th, 2001, Higgins quickly put his mark on the Eskimos and helped guide the team to a first place finish in the tough CFL West Division. Despite a season long injury bug that plagued the Eskimos, Higgins disciplined approach and attention to fundamentals helped keep the team on track. Prior to being named head coach, the native of Colonia, New Jersey, spent four seasons as the Eskimos General Manager and Chief Operating Officer. Originally joined the Eskimos in 1993 as the clubs' Assistant General Manager.

Tom got his start in CFL coaching and administration during his nine seasons (1985 - '93) with the Calgary Stampeders where he served as special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at various times during his time with the Stamps.

Tom is a strong supporter of the very successful Alberta Minor Football program and has been instrumental in organizing evaluation camps and high school clinics, as well as the Varsity Stars 2000 program for Canadian university football players. Tom has taken a leadership role in increasing women's football knowledge through the Football 101 and 202 programs.

As a player, Tom was an All-Conference and All-American in both football and wrestling at North Carolina State and was captain of both teams. Coached by Lou Holtz, Tom participated in four consecutive bowl games.

His pro career started as a linebacker with Calgary in 1976. He then jumped to the Buffalo Bills under head coach Chuck Knox of the NFL before returning to Canada in 1980 with the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Tom's father played in the NFL in the 1950's with Chicago and Philadelphia, followed by 45 years coaching high school football.

Tom retired as a player in 1981 and moved into the coaching ranks at Calgary's Crescent Heights High School. Tom coached with the University of Calgary Dinosaurs from 1982 - '84, helping the U of C to two conference championships and the Canadian title in 1983.

Away from football, Tom is a highly sought after motivational speaker who works with business and community groups and enjoys woodworking.

Tom and his wife Sharon have three children Holly, Hillary and Thomas Russell.

Born in Montreal (05/26/67), Danny got his coaching start in 1993 as an assistant with a junior squad that won the under 19 national championship. The following season, Maciocia was offensive coordinator for the St Leonard Cougars, winners of the Eastern Canadian Championship. In 1995, Danny was named head coach of St Leonard, and also handled the offensive coordinator duties for the Eastern Canadian National 19 and under championship team.

In 1990, MacDermott was part of the Toronto Argonauts staff.

Bill's coaching career started in 1961 at Hopkins High School in New Haven, Connecticut. In 1966 he moved to Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut. Five years later he assumed the job of head coach, a post he would keep for 16 years (1971 - '86).

From 1990 to 1996, McKinnon coached at Concordia University. He spent 1997 coaching at McGill University. Prior to joining Saskatchewan in 1994, Greg was head coach of the Ottawa Sooners for three seasons. He was named CJFL Coach of the Year in 1991 and the next year guided the Sooners to an undefeated season and a national championship.

In 1991 Greg got his first taste of CFL coaching when he was a guest coach at the Argos training camp. He worked in a similar capacity for the Ottawa Rough Riders during their 1992 & '93 training camps.

The native of Beverly, MA was also head coach of the Ottawa Bootleggers in the American Football Alliance for two years, leading the team to an undefeated season in 1990.

Greg enjoyed an outstanding playing career as defensive lineman with Ottawa from 1980 - 1988. He was the CFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 1983, a four time Eastern All-Star and a two time CFL All-Star.

Before Greg made his way to Canada, the graduate of Oregon State University was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the seventh round of the 1978 NFL Draft. During 1978 & '79 Greg spent time with both Philadelphia and the Baltimore Colts.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #1

ESKIMOS 28
LIONS 35 (OT)

July 7, 2001 at B.C. Place Stadium
Attendance 18,125

Vancouver native Sean Millington scored from two yards out on British Columbia's second possession in overtime as the Lions posted a wild 35-28 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos in Canadian Football League action.

Damon Allen completed a 33-yard pass to Matt Robinson to give the Lions a first down at the Edmonton two-yard line. After Millington's touchdown and the ensuing conversion by Scott Kellett put B.C. up by seven, Edmonton had one final chance to force another overtime.

Eskimos quarterback Nealon Greene threw an incompletion and a pass for no gain before running for seven yards on third down to end the game.

B.C., the defending Grey Cup champion, took a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on a pair of touchdown passes by Allen.

Edmonton rallied in the third quarter and forged a 15-15 tie on a 32-yard touchdown run by Mark Nohra and a 44-yard interception return by Shannon Garrett.

Kellett sandwiched a pair of field goals around a single to put the Lions back up by 22-15 with just over five minutes remaining.

But the Eskimos got a field goal from Sean Fleming to cut their deficit to four and Stephen Anderson returned a fumble by Millington 26 yards to give Edmonton its first lead at 28-25 with 2:36 left in the fourth quarter.

But Allen completed five of his next six passes on the Lions' final possession of regulation to set up a field goal by Kellett with 13 seconds remaining to forge a 25-25 tie.

Each team managed a field goal on its possession in the initial overtime.

ESKIMOS 13

ROUGHRIDERS 11

July 13, 2001 at Commonwealth Stadium

Attendance 32,722

Sean Fleming kicked a pair of fourth-quarter field goals to lead the Edmonton Eskimos to a 13-11 victory that deprived the Saskatchewan Roughriders of their first 2-0 start in 12 years. Fleming's 37-yard kick with 9:26 remaining snapped a 10-10 tie. Just over 2 1/2 minutes later, Paul McCallum missed a 46-yard field goal that would have tied it and settled for a single.

Seeking its first 2-0 start since 1989, Saskatchewan (1-1) grabbed a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter on a 78-yard touchdown pass from Marvin Graves to Roell Preston. But Graves completed just 12-of-22 passes for 213 yards and was intercepted twice.

Fleming kicked a 14-yard field goal to get the Eskimos (1-1) within 7-3 at halftime. They took the lead late in the second quarter on a nine-yard toss from Nealon Greene to Rick Walters. McCallum's 21-yard field goal just under two minutes into the final period forged a 10-10 deadlock.

Greene was 20-of-36 for 261 yards with a pair of interceptions.

Preston had four catches for 112 yards, but Mark Nohra rushed for 112 yards on 18 carries for Edmonton.

Mike Pringle bounced back to lead the unbeaten Montreal Alouettes to a 34-6 thrashing of the Edmonton Eskimos.

Thomas Haskins capped the scoring with an eight-yard run in the fourth quarter as Montreal (4-0) posted its fourth straight home win over Edmonton.

Anthony Calvillo completed 19-of-26 passes for 276 yards with an interception to help the Alouettes outgain the Eskimos, 507 yards to 199.

Sean Fleming kicked a pair of field goals for Edmonton, which never got untracked. Nealon Greene was 11-of-24 for 105 yards and backup Jason Maas was just 2-of-6 for 25 yards.

Damon Allen threw four touchdown passes as the B.C. Lions built a 25-point lead and held on for a 42-39 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos.

Allen hit Tyrone Taylor for a 78-yard score midway through the opening quarter and connected with Ryan Thelwell for a 21-yard touchdown less than four minutes later. Robert Drummond scored the first of his two TDs on the final play of the period to give B.C. a 21-3 lead.

The Lions (3-3) maintained an 18-point halftime lead and Allen threw two more touchdown passes in the third quarter, finding Alfred Jackson from 32 yards and Taylor from 25 to make it 42-18.

Jason Maas rallied Edmonton (3-3) with four second-half touchdown passes, including three to Edward Hervey. A 30-yard strike from Maas to Hervey got the Eskimos within 42-39 midway through the fourth quarter, but a last-minute drive fell short.

The Lions have scored 86 points during a two-game winning streak that has left them just one point behind the first-place Eskimos in the Western Division.

Jeff Johnson rushed for 109 yards, leading the Hamilton Tiger-Cats to a 20-12 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos, who retired Warren Moon's jersey but suffered their third straight loss.

Johnson moved into the starting lineup following the release of Ronald Williams and carried 23 times to help Hamilton (4-4) avenge a 24-14 loss to Edmonton earlier this month.

The Tiger-Cats never trailed after Danny McManus hit Darren Flutie with a 10-yard touchdown pass less than two minutes into the game. Ageless Paul Osbaldiston kicked a 22-yard field goal to give Hamilton a 10-1 halftime lead.

Jarrett Smith returned a blocked punt 23 yards for a score 80 seconds into the second half to stretch the advantage to 16 points.

McManus completed 15-of-27 passes for 237 yards without an interception and Flutie had five receptions for 85 yards.

The Eskimos (3-4-0-1) did not reach the end zone until late in the fourth quarter, when Dan Crowley threw a 25-yard TD pass to Edward Hervey. Crowley also hit Rick Walters for the two-point conversion to make it 20-12.

One of three quarterbacks used by Edmonton, Crowley was 13-of-24 for 167 yards. Nealon Greene went 10-of-19 for 140 yards and Jason Maas hit on 5-of-6 passes for 32 yards.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #9

ESKIMOS 33
STAMPEDERS 32

September 3, 2001 at McMahon Stadium
Attendance 35,967

Sean Fleming's 25-yard field goal as time expired gave the Edmonton Eskimos a wild 33-32 victory over the Calgary Stampeders and sole possession of second place in the Western Division.

Fleming's kick capped a furious 70-yard drive guided by Jason Maas, who completed 21-of-33 passes for 312 yards and a touchdown.

A 16-yard run by newly acquired Ronald Williams extended the Eskimos' lead to 30-21 just over a minute into the fourth quarter. But the Stampeders (3-6) rallied as Ben Sankey hit Marc Boerigter for a 25-yard touchdown.

After missing a long field goal for a single, Mark McLoughlin converted from 13 yards with 57 seconds to play, putting Calgary ahead, 32-30.

Sankey replaced Marcus Crandell and completed just 4-of-12 passes for 52 yards. Crandell, who opened the scoring with a six-yard run, was 6-of-9 for 84 yards and a touchdown before leaving with a shoulder injury.

Williams rushed for 99 yards on 17 carries in his debut with Edmonton (4-5-0-1), which outgained the Stamps, 460 yards to 272. Calgary was led by Kelvin Anderson, who ran 17 times for 105 yards.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #10

ESKIMOS 33
STAMPEDEERS 34

September 7, 2001 at Commonwealth Stadium
Attendance 48,279

The Calgary Stampeders came away with a stunning 34-33 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos as cornerback William Fields returned a conversion attempt 95 yards for two points in the final minute.

Edmonton (4-6-0-1) scored a pair of touchdowns in an 82-second span late in the fourth quarter and took a 33-32 lead on Jason Maas' 65-yard strike to Quincy Jackson. The Eskimos tried for two points, but Fields picked off Maas at the goal line and brought the interception all the way back for a rare defensive conversion.

Kelvin Anderson and Ben Sankey helped Calgary (4-6) build a 24-7 lead in the second quarter. Anderson scored on a one-yard run and caught a 22-yard touchdown pass from Sankey, who also scrambled 31 yards for a TD.

Sankey completed 13-of-18 passes for 218 yards and a pair of scores. His five-yard toss to Travis Moore with 1:45 left in the third quarter extended the Stamps' advantage to 31-18.

Maas was 17-of-34 for 310 yards and three touchdowns with two interceptions. In addition to his fourth-quarter heroics, he hit Terry Vaughn for a 50-yard TD on the final play of the first half.

Calgary avenged a 33-32 loss to Edmonton on Labour Day and ended a five-game slide against its provincial rival.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #16

ESKIMOS 25 (OT)

ARGONAUTS 22

October 19, 2001 at SkyDome
Attendance 15,438

Jason Maas hit Edward Hervey with a 35-yard touchdown pass to lift the Edmonton Eskimos to a 25-22 overtime victory over the Toronto Argonauts.

The Eskimos were in dire straights in overtime, trailing by three points with kicker Sean Fleming sidelined from a knee injury suffered during the fourth quarter.

But Maas connected with Hervey at the 10-yard line and the wide receiver broke through two Toronto defenders to reach the end zone. Maas completed 18-of-28 passes for 211 yards.

The CFL's scoring leader with 175 points, Fleming kicked three field goals in the first three quarters but had his club-record of consecutive field goals stopped at 22 when he missed a 42-yard attempt before halftime.

Worse though, he took a low hit from Toronto's Grayson Shillingford in the fourth quarter and is likely lost for the season.

Taking Fleming's place was backup defensive back Chris Hardy, who missed a 16-yard field goal at 9:22 of the fourth quarter that went for a single and knotted the game at 17-17.

Ralph Staten tackled Mike Jenkins in the end zone for a safety to give the Eskimos a 19-17 advantage at 12:23 into the fourth, but Toronto's Rio Wells took down Dan Crowley for a safety that forced overtime at 13:10.

Ronald Williams made a four-yard TD run in the fourth quarter for Edmonton (8-8-0-1), which clinched a West Division playoff berth. The Eskimos are in first place, four points ahead of Calgary.

Kerwin Bell threw one TD and Dan Giancola kicked a 20-yard field goal in the first half for the Argonauts (6-10-0-1), who are tied with Calgary but lead third-place B.C. by one point in the West.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #17

ESKIMOS 3 ROUGHRIDERS 12

October 27, 2001 at Taylor Field
Attendance 20,917

Paul McCallum kicked a CFL-record 62-yard field goal as the Saskatchewan Roughriders defeated the Edmonton Eskimos, 12-3.

McCallum shattered the previous mark by two yards, ending the first half with his third of four field goals in the game.

Dave Ridgeway set the previous record with Saskatchewan, booting a 60-yarder on September 6, 1987 against the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

McCallum tied the game 2:37 into the second quarter with a 44-yard field goal and added a 45-yarder 75 seconds before the half. He capped the scoring on a 33-yarder with 2:45 to play.

The Eskimos (8-9) recorded a safety and single in the first quarter en route to their second loss in six games. Already having clinched a playoff berth, they could have won the West Division with a victory.

The Roughriders (5-12) snapped a seven-game home losing streak but still have the worst record in the league.

Edmonton had 344 yards of total offense to 274 for Saskatchewan but committed two of the game's three turnovers.

Jason Maas completed 21-of-35 passes for 236 yards and Ronald Williams rushed 19 times for 98 yards for the Eskimos. Kevin Glenn was 10-of-24 for 190 yards and Darren Davis gained 73 yards on 19 carries for the Roughriders.

Edward Hervey caught a pair of touchdown passes and Jackie Kellogg scored on a 56-yard interception return as the Edmonton Eskimos handed the Montreal Alouettes their seventh straight loss, 32-26.

SIDELINES

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Commonwealth Stadium - home of the Edmonton Eskimos, site of the 2001 World Championships in Athletics and Grey Cup 2002.

Edmonton's Commonwealth Stadium, constructed for a cost of $20.9 million, became the home of the Edmonton Eskimos on August 30, 1978, about three weeks after the city hosted the Commonwealth Games.

Football has been a part of the Edmonton sports scene since at least 1891 when Calgary and Edmonton tangled for the first time in a home and home series. With the creation of the Alberta Rugby Union, four years later, Edmonton played its first series of organized games.

In 1907, the Edmonton Rugby Football Club was officially formed, and in November of that year it played its first game against the Calgary City Football Club, defeating their rivals 26-5, at the Edmonton Exhibition Grounds.

The city's biggest move toward solidifying a franchise came in July of 1938, when work commenced on a new, modern stadium. In August of 1938 the stadium opened with much fanfare, before a crowd of 2,500. Prior to this, the team had folded and reformed a couple of times, but the creation of Clarke Stadium, named after former Edmonton mayor Joe Clarke, helped Edmonton become a big league city. The Eskimos played at Clarke for the last time on August 23, 1978.

The $6.2M Sony Jumbotron video scoreboard in Commonwealth Stadium is currently the largest and most advanced system of its kind in the world – measuring 40' X 24' with a 16 X 9 wide-screen picture format.

The on-screen presentation and video production seen on the screen during Eskimo games is provided by Aquila Productions Inc., an Edmonton-based international television, film, video, and new media company. Aquila Productions also operates and produces video programming for the video scoreboard at Skyreach Centre for the Edmonton Oilers.

After more than 20 years and the creation of almost 2,000 productions, including television series, documentaries, specials, and commercials, as well as corporate, government, educational, and music videos, Aquila is widely regarded as one of Canada's preeminent independent production companies specializing in broadcast sports-entertainment programming.

Aquila Scoreboard Productions is a leader in the use of computer animation to create dynamic, high-quality scoreboard video elements for live sporting events. ESKIMOS IN THE COMMUNITY

Eskimo players and management are very committed to the club's ongoing community projects and charitable endeavours. For 12 years, the Eskimos Stay in School program has delivered the message that it's Cool to Stay in School to thousands of youngsters in Edmonton and Northern Alberta.

Rob Harrod, A.J. Gass, Ed Hervey, Rick Walters and Gizmo Williams were on the 2002 Stay In School team.

Again this season, the Eskimos will team up with EPCOR to provide nutritional snacks to the children at Parkdale Elementary School in Edmonton. EPCOR is donating $100 for every Eskimos touchdown and $50 for every Eskimos field goal to the snack program.

The Eskimos continue their long and successful relationship with the Edmonton Food Bank. The annual tackle Hunger Night promotion in 2001 raised 3,279 kilograms of food and $7,064 cash for the Food Bank. The 2002 edition of Tackle Hunger will be held Friday, September 6th when Edmonton hosts Calgary in the annual Labour Day rematch.

Rick Walters – winner of the 2001 Tom Pate Award which recognizes outstanding sportsmanship and dedication to the league and the community.

With his signature call of "Touchdown Eskimos!", Bryan Hall has been the voice of football in Edmonton for over 34 seasons. Inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 1989, Hallsy has called the action for 8 Eskimo Grey Cup victories and proudly wears a 1993 Grey Cup ring presented to him by the club. During his long career, Hall has done play by play of the Edmonton Oilers (WHA) and a few seasons ago "pinch hit" for the Boston Bruins when their announcer became ill before the opening face-off during a game in Edmonton. He was for many years the track announcer for thoroughbred racing at Northlands. On the rare occasion that he's not on-air at 630 CHED doing morning sports or his afternoon Sportline show, Bryan and his wife Lillian enjoy movies and travel.

For the last 22 seasons, Bryan has been joined in the broadcast booth by former Eskimo player John Farlinger who provides the expert analysis. John, who is the president of Farlie Worldwide Travel Management in St. Albert, played six seasons at safety for the Green and Gold (1973 - '78). A native Edmontonian who played his college ball at the University of Calgary, he was a member of the Eskimos 1978 Grey Cup winning team.
